SUBJECT INDEX
VOLUMES I THROUGH XXIV

Compiled by: Jack Balderston

A-21, OMB CIRCULAR

Effort Reporting Alternates; Selby, Stephen; XIII, 3.

Indirect Cost Rate Composition and Myths; Selby, Stephen; XV, 3.

OMB Circular A-21 Update; Fife, Jerry G.; XXIII,4.

Preparing and Negotiating a Simplified Indirect Cost Rate for Colleges and Universities; Nacon, Paul; XIV, 2.

The Acquisition of Buildings and Equipment by Debt: A Viewpoint of OMB Circular A-21; Kaiser, Ronald; XII, 4.

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Freedom of Inquiry Versus Public Responsibility: Some Philosophical Perspectives; Streharsky, Charmaine; XVIII, 1.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Accountability in Research: Implications for University Based Research Programs; Stockton, Rex; XIII, 1.

An Ethical Framework for Allocating Resources in Science; Frankel, Mark S.; XXIII,2.

Challenges to the Presumption of Academic and Scientific Integrity; Gilbert, Diane C.; XXIII,4.

Evaluation of Forty-four University Research Programs that Receive Line-Item Appropriations from the Texas Legislature, Lynne Jordan Bowers and Roger W. Elliott; XXIV,1.

Federal Policies Regarding Scientific Integrity in Biomedical Research; Gordon, Stephen L.; XXIII,4.

More Accountability in Federally Funded Academic Research: A Costly "Bill of Goods"; Sessions, R. & Collins, T.; X,3 (Rod Rose Award winner).

OMB Circular A-21 Update; Fife, Jerry G.; XXIII,4.

On the Effectiveness of Federal Equipment Screening Requirements, David F. Mears and William Sellers; XXIV,2.

Public vs. Research Administrators' Attitudes Towards Institutional Accountability for Research Funds: A Small Experiment; Sessions, R. & Collins, T.; XIII,3.

Research Administration in a Time of Change; Brandt, Edward; XIX,2.

Self-Evaluation Project for Research Business Office Services; Morris, David E. & Hess, Larry G.; XXIII,1.

Scientific Publications Inhibit the Application of Scientific Research; Gregory, J.G..; XV,1.

Six Strategies for Chemical Waste Minimization in Laboratories; Matteson, Gary C. & Hadley, Cheri R.; XXIII,3.

Streamlining State Agency Requirements for Grantee Institutions; Gifford, Judy & Scanley, Anne; XXIII,3.

The Compliance Quagmire: Can We Get Through It Without Getting Bogged Down?; Smith, D.; XXII, 4.

The Outcomes of a Research Accountability Report; Jung, Loren; IX,3.

The University Graduate Studies Officer as the University Research Officer, Jerrold H. Zar; XXIV,1.

ACCOUNTING

A Research Administration Fable; Buechner, Quinten; VI,1.

Accounting for Human Assets; Rumbaugh, Max; V,3.

An Automated Approach to Departmental Grant Management; Kressly, G. & Kanov, A.; XVIII,2.

An Exchange Mechanism for University Research; Currie, David; IX,4.

Clinical Research Management In the Era of Prospective Payment, Ira S. Goodman and Thomas A. Fitzgerald; XXIV,1.

Computerized Management Information and Reporting Systems for Sponsored Projects; Rodman, J. & Peters, C.; XI,4.
Cost Sharing is Wrong, Wrong, Wrong!; Patterson, Frank; V,2.
Credit Cards for Improved Cost Assignments; Matteson, G. & Smiriga, S.; VIII,1.
Effort Reporting Alternates; Selby, Stephen; XIII,3.
Four Folder File System for Project Fiscal Management; Chermside, Herbert; XI,3.
Improving Research Fiscal Management: A Unitary Computerized Accounting System; Hensley, O. & Powers, G.; V,3.
More Accountability in Federally Funded Academic Research: A Costly "Bill of Goods"; Sessions, R. & Collins, T.; X,3 (Rod Rose Award winner).
Principles and Practices for Job Order Cost Sharing Accounting; Chermside, Herbert; XII,4.
R&D Management and Award Fee Accounting; Hunt, Raymond; VI,1.
Research Can Benefit from Service Centers; Rose, Rodney; V,2.
The Indirect Cost Predicament; Redecke, L. & Darling, B.; IX,2 (Rod Rose Award winner).
Universities and the Economic Recovery Act of 1981; Kaiser, R. & Vickstrom, M.; XIII,3.
User-Oriented Financial Management System; Hess, L. & Waters, J.; XI,1.
User-Oriented Project Accounting System; Hess, L., Alcorn, L.; XXI,4.
Using Microcomputers to Manage Grants; Joseph, J., Guild, N. & Rousmaniere, P.; XIV,1.

ADMINISTRATIVE MODELS
The University Graduate Studies Officer as the University Research Officer, Jerrold H. Zar; XXIV,1.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION
Affirmative Action: An Academician's View; Kommers, Donald; IX,2.
Affirmative Action: Where Are We Now?; Bierman, Leonard; IX,2.
The Affirmative Action Critics: A New Mythology; Newcomb, Betty; IX,2.
The Research Administrator's Responsibility for Buying from Minority-Owned Companies; Shaffer, Lyle; XI,1.

AGRICULTURE
A Review of Bases for Evaluating the Performance of Agricultural Research Institutions; Musewe, V.O.; XVIII,1.
Implementing Procedures for Agricultural-Related Research Contracts in Low Income Nations; Clyma, Wayne et al.; IX,4.
Planning Procedures for Contracting Agricultural-Related Research Programs in Low Income Nations; Clyma, Wayne et al.; IX,3.

ALCOHOL, DRUG ABUSE, MENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION
VA—Extra VA Collaboration in Health-Related Research, Dennis Roth; XXIV,2.

ALASKA, UNIV. OF
A Measure of Productivity in University Research; Nava, Joseph; VII,1.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES (AASCU)
Relationship of Effort To Success in Gaining Federal Funding at a Group of AASCU Institutions; Bergen, D.; XXI,4.

AMOCO
The Research Administrator's Responsibility for Buying from Minority-Owned Companies; Shaffer, Lyle; XI,1.

ANALYTICAL SERVICES
Staffing Modern Analytical Services for University Research Organizations; Matteson, Gary; XVIII,2.

ANIMAL CARE
Putting the Politics of Research with Animals in Perspective; Horton, Larry; XIX,3.
The Development of an Animal Care Facility Administration Team; De Santis, Frank; II,4.

ASSESSMENT
Evaluation of Forty-four University Research Programs that Receive Line-Item Appropriations from the Texas Legislature, Lynne Jordan Bowers and Roger W. Elliott; XXIV,1.
Research Activity in Major Research Universities: An Alternative Ranking System; Groth, Randall H., Brown, Kenneth G. & Leslie, Larry L.; XXIII,4.
The Need to Evaluate Research Support Offices in Institutions of Higher Education; Lowry, Peggy S. & Walker, Celia S.; XXIII,4.

ASSOC. OF JESUIT COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES
Research Administration in Jesuit Colleges and Universities; Miner, Lynn; XIII,3.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY
Management Audit of a Research Institute: A Case History; Crim, John; IX,4.
Word Processing Equipment as an Automated Faculty Information System; Duncan, J. & Wright, C.D.; XII,4.

AUTOMATION
Automating Grants Management and Review; Blandford, Donald, Meyerson, Neal & Droke, Doris; XXIII,1.

B.F. GOODRICH INCORPORATED
Technology Monitoring at B.F. Goodrich; Fredrick, Marvin; VII,2.

BOEING CORPORATION
Should the Contracting Function Wear Long Hair?; Lambert, W.S.; IV,3.

BUDGET DEVELOPMENT
Developing the Cost Proposal System, Budgeting Software: A Case Study, Irene Johnston Petrick and John R. McKee; XXIV,1.

BUDGETS
A Management Aid for the Planning of Research Salary Support in University Research Centers; Smackey, Bruce; VI,4.
BUDPROG, An Automated Budget Preparation Procedure; Nixon, Roberta; XIV,4.
Comprehensive Fiscal Planning, Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare; Kogan, Robert; II,3.
Recognizing the Limits of Cost Sharing; Kenny, James; X,4.
Sponsored Research: What's the Real Payoff?; Askin, J. & Askin, R.; XIII,1.
Self-Evaluation Project for Research Business Office Services; Morris, David E. & Hess, Larry G.; XXIII,1.
Streamlining State Agency Requirements for Grantee Institutions; Gifford, Judy & Scanley, Anne; XXIII,3.
The Budgeting of Industrial R&D Projects: A Review of the Literature; Schnarch, Alejandro; XI,2.
The University Graduate Studies Officer as the University Research Officer, Jerrold H. Zar; XXIV,1.
Zero-Base Budgeting at the North American Rockwell Science Center; Balderston, Jack; III,4.
Zero-Base Budgeting: Getting the Most from Research and Development Resources; Rondberg, S., Taylor, G. & Schmidt, T.; XII,3.

BUREAU OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS
Automating Grants Management and Review; Blandford, Donald, Meyerson, Neal & Droke, Doris; XXIII,1.

CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
Conservation of Research-Support Activities; Tanner, Henry; VI,2.

CALIFORNIA, UNIV. OF
Research Administration in the Seventies; Griffin, G. & Gross, N.; II,2.
University-Industry Joint Projects: A University View; Griffin, Gerald; V,4.

CALIFORNIA, UNIV. OF, BERKELEY

Micro-Computer Controlled Instrument Process and Billing System; Matteson, G. & Nunlist, R.; XVI,2.

The DHEW Requirements for the Protection of Human Subjects: Impact at the University of California, Berkeley; Millstein, Eugene; VIII,1.

CALIFORNIA, UNIV. OF, LOS ANGELES

University-Industry Research Cooperation; Barber, Albert; XVII,2.

CANADA

Administration of Technological Research in Canada's Federal Department of Transport; Khubchandani, S., Johnson, W. F.; XXI,2.

An Integrative Approach to University Contract Management; Whitworth, Tony; VIII,1.

Criteria for Effective R&D Management Within Government Science Organizations; Bhaneja, Balwant; XI,3.

Developing Closer Ties with the Pharmaceutical Industry; Reid, Gregor & Hoddinott, Susan; XXIII,2.

Recent Developments in Canadian Contract and Grants Administration; Julien, Gilles; VIII,4.

Research Administration Revisited; Blais, Roger; XVI,4.

Sharing Research Resources: A Means for Improving Effectiveness; McPherson, James; XI,4.

The Business of Software Licensing at the University of Waterloo; Sprung, Peter; XV,2.

The Research Administrator: Shield and Promoter; Kerwin, Larkin; XIII,4.

Training and Development of Science Managers in the Public Sector; Bhaneja, B. & Read, D.; XV,2.

University and Industry Cooperative Research in Canada; Schneider, W.G.; X,2.

University-Industry Connections—The GURC Example; Sharp, J. & Gumnick, J.; XII,2.

Xerox Canadian Research Facility: The Multinational and the "Offshore" Laboratory; Marchessault, R. & Myers, M.; XVIII,1.

CENTERS FOR DISEASE CONTROL

Considerations for Managing Large-Scale Clinical Trials; Tuttle, W., Smith, H., Piland, N.; XXI,2.

CENTERS FOR ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY

Perceptions and Expectations at New York State's Centers for Advanced Technology: Some Implications for Research Management; Bitting, R.; XXI,2.

CETUS CORPORATION

Observations on the Future of Biotechnology; Cape, Ronald; XIX,4.

CIBA-GEIGY

Responsive Purchasing; Suchy, John; VII,1.

CLEMSON UNIVERSITY

Electronic Proposal Processing at Clemson University; Latimer, D. & McCracken, A.; XX,2.

CLINICAL RESEARCH

Clinical Research Management In the Era of Prospective Payment, Ira S. Goodman and Thomas A. Fitzgerald; XXIV,1.

CLINICAL TRIALS

Considerations for Managing Large-Scale Clinical Trials; Tuttle, W., Smith, H., Piland, N.; XXI,2.

Developing Closer Ties with the Pharmaceutical Industry; Reid, Gregor & Hoddinott, Susan; XXIII,2.

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY
Debt Financing for the Support of University Research Programs; Kaiser, Ronald; XII,4.

COMMUNICATION
A Problem for Every Solution: Perspectives on the Study of University Administration; Pardini, Robin; IV,1&2 (Rod Rose Award winner).
Electronic Communications Between NSF & University Research Administration Offices for R&D Data Collection; Dingerson, M., Rodman, J.; XXI,3.
From Two Points of View; Larson, Jarryl; VI,4.
Funding Information Across the State: The University of Tennessee's Resources System; Farris, Jane Park & Cole, Greg; XXIII,3.
Funding Opportunities Newsletters: How Useful Are They?; Wargula, Carol A.; XXIII,1.
Information Exchange: Enhancing State University and Federal Cooperation; Bloom, A., Hautaluoma, J. & Morton, J.; XVII,1.
Information Sharing; Wiley, Lawrence; II,1.
Internal and External Communication in University Research Administration; Buchtel, Foster; III,1.
Opportunities for Maximizing the Effectiveness of the Administration/Researcher Relationship; Hall Ross, M.; XXII, 1.
Professional Employees in Drug R&D: Measures of Satisfaction; Gauthier, G., Allen, W. & Bragaw, L.; IX,2.
Professional Employees in Drug R&D: Information Flow and Intergroup Interaction; Gauthier, G., Allen, W. & Bragaw, L.; IX,1&2.
Research Administrators as 'Invisible College' Facilitators, Francis W. Wolek and Peter M. Sanchez; XXIV,4.
Research: Getting Rid of the Cloak and Dagger; Arnold, Joanne; V,1.
The Delta Chart: An Aid to Project Management; Allen, T. Harrell; VIII,1.
The Integrative Aspect of Policy Development for Research Administration; Buchtel, Foster; V,4.
The Management Technologist; Bukowski, T., Reeves, G. & Jauch, L.; X,1.
The Researcher-Administrative Communications Gap; Borelli, R.F.; IV,4.
What's It All About—This Research Administration?; Lawrence, Steve; XXIII,1.

COMPLIANCE (see Regulatory Compliance)

COMPUTER USE
A Computer-Based Information System for Research Space Utilization; Clouse, R. Wilburn; III,3.
A Decision System for Matching Faculty to Research Opportunities; Napier, H. Albert el al.; X,2.
A Grant Information System Becomes A Research Management Tool; Hoppin, Margery; IV,4.
A Management Aid for the Planning of Research Salary Support in University Research Centers; Smackey, Bruce; VI,4.
A Method for Peer Group Appraisal and Interpretation of Data Developed in Interdisciplinary Research Programs; Sharp, J. & Gumnick, J; XIII,2.
A Rapid Information Dissemination System: A Follow-Up Report; Miner, L. & Niederjohn, R.; XI,3.
A System of Cataloging Institutional Research Expertise Using Microcomputer Data Bases; Hicks, Diane; XIX,4.
An Automated Approach to Departmental Grant Management; Kressly, G. & Kanov, A.; XVIII,2.
An Automated Movable Equipment Information System; Hess, L. & Beringer, J.; XIV,3.
Automated Interactive Storeroom Inventory System; Sapp, A. & Hess, L.; XX,4.
Automating Grants Management and Review; Blandford, Donald, Meyerson, Neal & Droke, Doris; XXIII,1.
Automating the Funding Search; Drew, J. & Norris, J.; XIV,2.
BUDPROG, An Automated Budget Preparation Procedure; Nixon, Roberta; XIV,4.
Computer-Assisted Research Administration; Burt, R. Alan; XII,1.
Computerized Faculty Information System; Rodman, John; IX,2.

Computerized Management Information and Reporting Systems for Sponsored Projects; Rodman, J. & Peters, C; XI,4.
Computerizing an Office for Sponsored Programs at a Small Medical School; DiPlacido, P.; XXI,2.
Computers in Forestry Research in Asian Countries; Ta, Huu-Phuong; XIX,1.
Copier Data Collection System; Hess, Larry & Lienhard, D.; XX,2.
Credit Cards for Improved Cost Assignments; Matteson, G. & Smiriga, S.; XIII,1.
Data Processing and Retrieval System, Office of Research Administration; Koppenhaver, James; II,4.
Developing the Cost Proposal System, Budgeting Software: A Case Study, Irene Johnston Petrick and John R. McKee; XXIV,1.
Development and Implementation of a Faculty Interest Database; Bearse, R. & Maxwell, B.; IX,3.
Electronic Communications Between NSF & University Research Administration Offices for R&D Data Collection; Dingerson, M., Rodman, J.; XXI,3.
Electronic Proposal Processing at Clemson University; Latimer, D. & McCracken, A.; XX,2.
Funding Information Across the State: The University of Tennessee's Resources System; Farris, Jane Park & Cole, Greg; XXIII,3.
Implementing a Microcomputer Database Management System; Manock, J. & Crater, K.L.; XVI,3.
Improving Research Fiscal Management: A Unitary Computerized Accounting System; Hensley, O. & Powers, G.; V,3.
Inventory Control and Stores Management; Hess, L. & Waters, J.; VI,3.
IRIS: Illinois Research Information System; Lowry, P., Bradshaw, L. & Sansone, K.; X,4.
Micro-Computer Controlled Instrument Process and Billing System; Matteson, G. & Nunlist, R.; XVI,2.
Microcomputers: Assisting Research Administration Offices with Pre-Award Activities; Manock, John; XV,3.
NASA Automated Purchase Order System; Rokovich, J. & Hess, L.; XII,3.
Research Equipment Management System: A Computer-Based Model; Clouse, R.W. & Peppers, T.D.; V,4.
The Computerization of Sponsored Project Administrative Systems—Auxiliary Pre-Award Systems—Computerized Scholarly Interest Files; Schneider, Robert; XVIII,3.
The Development of a Microcomputerized System for Research Administration; Gordon, K. & Lineberry, C.; XVIII,4.
Time Sharing and Research; Bayles, Richard; V,2.
Two Microcomputer Applications to Assist the Pre-Award Sponsored Projects Administration; Robins, C., Murphy, C. & Hess, L.; XVII,3.
Use of Computerized Personnel Information—A Tool For Top Management; Strauss, Albert; II,2.
User-Oriented Project Accounting System; Hess, L., Alcorn, L.; XXI,4.
Using Microcomputers to Manage Grants; Joseph J., Guild, N. & Rousmanier, P.; XIV,1.
Word Processing Equipment as an Automated Faculty Information System; Duncan, J. & Wright, C.D.; XII,4.

CONFLICT

Administration in the Research Environment—The Provider's Perspective; Mooney, Richard; XVI,2 (Rod Rose Award winner).
Challenges to the Presumption of Academic and Scientific Integrity; Gilbert, Diane C.; XXIII,4.
Federal Policies Regarding Scientific Integrity in Biomedical Research; Gordon, Stephen L.; XXIII,4.
Managing Research Scientists: Problems, Solutions and an Agenda for Research; Smith, H. & Tuttle, W.; XIII,4 (Rod Rose Award winner).
OMB Circular A-21 Update; Fife, Jerry G.; XXIII,4.
Organizational Conflict: Causes and Manifestations; Sacks, Eugene; XI,1.
Organizational Conflict: Strategic Intervention Points; Thomas, J. Everett; XI,3.
Research Administrators and Development Officers: Orchestrating From Organizational Discord To Harmony; Streharsky, C. J.; XXI,3.
University-Industry Teaming Agreements; Stombler, M.; XXI,3.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST
Challenges to the Presumption of Academic and Scientific Integrity; Gilbert, Diane C.; XXIII,4.
Conflict of Interest: A Principal Business Officer's Perspective; Bray, D.; XXII, 3.
Considerations in Licensing Spin-Off Technology; Gunsalus, C. K.; XXI,1.
Ethical Implications of For-Profit Corporate Sponsorship of Research; Cichy, K.; XXII, 1.
Federal Policies Regarding Scientific Integrity in Biomedical Research; Gordon, Stephen L.; XXIII,4.
OMB Circular A-21 Update; Fife, Jerry G.; XXIII,4.
There Are Problems; Garrett, Laurie; XVII,2.
University-Industry Relations: Is There a Conflict?; Brown, Theodore; XVII,2.
University-Industry Relationships—A University Perspective; Kendrick, J.B.; XIV,2.

CONSORTIUM
A Consortium Approach to Pre-Award Grant/Contract Services; Rodman, John; X,4.
A Method for Peer Group Appraisal and Interpretation of Data Developed in Interdisciplinary Research Programs; Sharp, J. & Gumnick, J.; XIII,2.
A Model for Inter-Institutional R&D Administrative and Industry/University Relations; Rodman, John; XIII,4.
Funding Opportunities Newsletters: How Useful Are They?; Wargula, Carol A.; XXIII,1.
PERT—A Tool for Consortia Project Management; Katz, Lee; IV,2.
Sharing Research Resources, A Means for Improving Effectiveness; McPherson, James; XI,4.
The Consortium in Scientific Development; Brown, J.H.U.; IX,3.

CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT
Developing Sponsors for Applied Research; Stroh, Robert C.; XXIII,3.
Programming Construction Management; Hoffmier, Joseph; VIII,2.

CONTRACTS (see Grants)

COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS
Cooperative Agreements—Two Years Later; Shapek, Raymond; XIV,1.

COPIERS
Copier Data Collection System; Hess, L. & Lienard, D.; XX,2.

COPYRIGHTS (see Patents and Copyrights)

COST REDUCTION
Conservation of Research-Support Activities; Tanner, Henry; VI,2.
Improving Productivity in Sponsored Research Administration: New Approaches and Structures, Bill Kirby; XXIV,2.
Research Administration—The Cost in Dollars and Faculty Time; Lewis, James; XIX,3.
The University Graduate Studies Officer as the University Research Officer, Jerrold H. Zar; XXIV,1.
Streamlining State Agency Requirements for Grantee Institutions; Gifford, Judy & Scanley, Anne; XXIII,3.

COST SHARING
Cost Sharing is Wrong, Wrong, Wrong!; Patterson, Frank; V,2.
Principles and Practices for Job-Order Cost Sharing Accounting; Chermside, Herbert; XII,4.
Sponsored Research: What's the Real Payoff?; Askin, J. & Askin, R.; XIII,1.

COUNCIL ON RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY
Resolution of the Council on Research and Technology; Kay, Kenneth; XX,2.

COUNTRIES, DEVELOPING
A Checklist for Personnel Assigned to Posts in Developing Countries; Morales, Hilbert; IX,2.

Implementing Procedures for Agricultural-Related Research Contracts in Low-Income Nations; Clyma, Wayne et al.; IX,4.
Planning Procedures for Contracting Agricultural-Related Research Programs in Low Income Nations; Clyma, Wayne et al.; IX,3.

DELPHI TECHNIQUE
Delphi—The Research Administrator's Oracle?; Pyke, Donald; II,1.

DEPT. OF HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE
The DHEW Requirements for the Protection of Human Subjects: Impact at the University of California, Berkeley; Millstein, Eugene; VIII,1.

DESOTO INCORPORATED
Technology Monitoring at DeSoto, Inc.; Tessari, Domenic; VII,2.

DRUG USE REGULATION
Drug Enforcement and the Researcher; Durrin, Kenneth; V,2.

ECOLE POLYTECHNIQUE DE MONTREAL
Research Administration Revisited; Blais, Roger; XVI,4.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
The University's Role in Economic Development: Lessons for Academic Leaders; Fairweather, J.; XXII, 3.

ENERGY MANAGEMENT
Energy Management in Research Facilities; Hyde, Thomas; X,4.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY
Long-Term Exploratory Research at E.P.A.; Shapek, Raymond; XIII,1.
Research and Development in the Environmental Protection Agency; Trakowski, Albert; V,1.

ETHICS
An Ethical Framework for Allocating Resources in Science; Frankel, Mark S.; XXIII,2.
Challenges to the Integrity of Science: The Federal Mandate and Issues for Institutions; Hansen, B. & Hansen, K.; XX,4.
Challenges to the Presumption of Academic and Scientific Integrity; Gilbert, Diane C.; XXIII,4.
Ethical Implications of For-Profit Corporate Sponsorship of Research; Cichy, K.; XXII, 1.
Federal Policies Regarding Scientific Integrity in Biomedical Research; Gordon, Stephen L.; XXIII,4.
Medical Research, Medical Journals and the Public Interest; Relman, A.; XXI,2.
OMB Circular A-21 Update; Fife, Jerry G.; XXIII,4.
Six Strategies for Chemical Waste Minimization in Laboratories; Matteson, Gary C. & Hadley, Cheri R.; XXIII,3.

EQUIPMENT CONTROL
A Property Control Program; Nicholsen, Richard; II,1.
A Research Equipment Assistance Program; Ditzel, Roger; VII,4.
An Automated Movable Equipment Information System; Hess, L. & Beringer, J.; XIV,3.
Micro-Computer Controlled Instrument Process and Billing System; Matteson, G. & Nunlist, R.; XVI,2.
On the Effectiveness of Federal Equipment Screening Requirements, David F. Mears and William Sellers; XXIV,2.
Research Equipment Management System: A Computer-Based Model; Clouse, R.W. & Peppers, T.D.; V,4.

EVALUATION
The Need to Evaluate Research Support Offices in Institutions of Higher Education; Lowry, Peggy S. & Walker, Celia S.; XXIII,4.

FACILITIES (see Research Facilities)

FEDERAL DEMONSTRATION PROJECT
Streamlining State Agency Requirements for Grantee Institutions; Gifford, Judy & Scanley, Anne; XXIII,3.

FORESTRY RESEARCH
Computers in Forestry Research in Asian Countries; Ta, Huu-Phuong; XIX,1.

GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
Allocation of Biomedical Research Grant Funds at the George Washington University Medical Center; Leonard, F., Bain, A. & Bowles, L.T.; XVI,1.

GEORGIA, UNIV. OF, MEDICAL COLLEGE
The Development of a Microcomputerized System for Research Administration; Gordon, K. & Lineberry, C.; XVIII,4.

GERMANY
University-Industry Technology Transfer in Germany: Implications for U.S. Partners; Waugaman, P.; XXII, 1.

GOVERNMENT LABORATORIES
A New Model for Federal-State-Industry Cooperation: Technology Transfer Lessons for the New Jersey Experience; Goodman, D.; XXI,4.
University-Industry Research Cooperation: An Industrial View; McHenry, K.W.; XVII,2.

GOVERNMENT, FEDERAL
An Ethical Framework for Allocating Resources in Science; Frankel, Mark S.; XXIII,2.
Automating Grants Management and Review; Blandford, Donald, Meyerson, Neal & Droke, Doris; XXIII,1.
Block Grants and the New Federalism: Boon or Bane; Williams, Ben; XIV,4.
Challenges to the Presumption of Academic and Scientific Integrity; Gilbert, Diane C.; XXIII,4.
Federal Policies Regarding Scientific Integrity in Biomedical Research; Gordon, Stephen L.; XXIII,4.
Improving Productivity in Sponsored Research Administration: New Approaches and Structures, Bill Kirby; XXIV,2.
Observations on the Future of Biotechnology; Cape, Ronald; XIX,4.
OMB Circular A-21 Update; Fife, Jerry G.; XXIII,4.
On Reorganization: Assorted Pangs, Problems, Fables and Foibles; Flick, Donald; II,4.
On the Direction of Federal Policies Affecting the Universities; Sapolsky, Harvey; II,4.
On the Effectiveness of Federal Equipment Screening Requirements, David F. Mears and William Sellers; XXIV,2.
Organizing Research Compliances for the 1990s; Cebik, L.B.; XIX,3 (Rod Rose Award winner).
Research Activity in Major Research Universities: An Alternative Ranking System; Groth, Randall H., Brown, Kenneth G. & Leslie, Larry L.; XXIII,4.
Research Administration in a Time of Change; Brandt, Edward; XIX,2.
Research and Development in the 100th Congress; Kay, Kenneth; XIX,3.
State of the National Research System: Issues for the New Administration; Atkinson, R.; XXI,1.
The Changing Research Climate—New Challenges to Research Administrators; Libsch, Joseph; VII,3.
The Compliance Quagmire: Can We Get Through It Without Getting Bogged Down?; Smith, D.; XXII, 4.
The Federal Government's Science Structure, Past and Present; Matteson, Gary; II,1.

The University Graduate Studies Officer as the University Research Officer, Jerrold H. Zar; XXIV,1.
Toward a Model Policy for Federally Supported Research; Kirby, W.; XXI,4.
University Management Responses to Federal Funding Cuts; Selby, Stephen; XIV,3.
VA—Extra VA Collaboration in Health-Related Research, Dennis Roth; XXIV,2.

GOVERNMENT, STATE
Competitive Research Grants in Texas: The Advanced Research Program and Advanced Technology Program; Jordan Bowers, L., Elliott, R., Caldwell, L.; XXII, 3.
Evaluation of Forty-four University Research Programs that Receive Line-Item Appropriations from the Texas Legislature, Lynne Jordan Bowers and Roger W. Elliott; XXIV,1.
Industry/University Research Cooperation: The State Government Role; Lindsey, Quentin; XVII,2.
Perceptions and Expectations at New York State's Centers for Advanced Technology: Some Implications for Research Management; Bitting, R.; XXI,2.
Programs Sponsored by State Agencies: A Case Study; Friese, E., Dublin, E. & Seibert, C.; VII,4.
Streamlining State Agency Requirements for Grantee Institutions; Gifford, Judy & Scanley, Anne; XXIII,3.

GRANTS—FEES
R&D Management and Award Fee Accounting; Hunt, Raymond; VI,1.

GRANTS—FUNDING SOURCES
A Model for Inter-Institutional R&D Administration and Industry/University Relations; Rodman, John; XIII,4.
Automating the Funding Search; Drew, J. & Norris, J.; XIV,2.
Computerized Management Information and Reporting Systems for Sponsored Projects; Rodman, J. & Peters, C.; XI,4.
Correlates of External Support: A Model for Faculty Research Development; Meyer, Katrina A.; XXIII,2.
Developing a Successful Sponsored Research Program at a "Teaching" College; Donaldson, Colleen; XXIII,2.
Developing Sponsors for Applied Research; Stroh, Robert C.; XXIII,3.
Evaluation of Forty-four University Research Programs that Receive Line-Item Appropriations from the Texas Legislature, Lynne Jordan Bowers and Roger W. Elliott; XXIV,1.
Funding Information Across the State: The University of Tennessee's Resources System; Farris, Jane Park & Cole, Greg; XXIII,3.
Funding Opportunities Newsletters: How Useful Are They?; Wargula, Carol A.; XXIII,1.
The Research Clearinghouse; Klink, W., Lowry, P. & Tasca, D.; VII,1.
VA—Extra VA Collaboration in Health-Related Research, Dennis Roth; XXIV,2.

GRANTS, INSTITUTIONAL FUNDING
Internal Faculty Research Grants Program: An Effective Component of Research Promotion?, Virginia J. DeHart; XXIV,4.

GRANTS—MATCHING FACULTY INTERESTS
A Consortium Approach to Pre-Award Grant/Contract Services; Rodman, John; X,4.
A Cost Analysis of a University Research and Administration Library; Hensley, O. & Williams, K.; XIII,1.
A Decision System for Matching Faculty to Research Opportunities; Napier, H. Albert et al.; X,2.
A Rapid Information Dissemination System-A Follow-Up Report; Miner, L. & Niederjohn, R.; XI,3.
A Rapid Information Dissemination System-A Preliminary Report; Miner, L. & Niederjohn, R.; X,2.
A System of Cataloging Institutional Research Expertise Using Microcomputer Data Bases; Hicks, Diane; XIX,4.
Computerized Faculty Information System; Rodman, John; IX,2.

Computerized Management Information and Reporting Systems for Sponsored Projects; Rodman, J. & Peters, C.; XI,4.
Development and Implementation of a Faculty Interest Database; Bearse, R. & Maxwell, B.; IX,3.
Funding Information Across the State: The University of Tennessee's Resources System; Farris, Jane Park & Cole, Greg; XXIII,3.
Identifying Interests and Needs of Social Scientists; Stockton, R. & Smith, S.; VII,2.
Internal Faculty Research Grants Program: An Effective Component of Research Promotion?, Virginia J. DeHart; XXIV,4.
IRIS: Illinois Research Information System; Lowry, P., Bradshaw, L. & Sansone, K.; X,4.
Promotion of Research Interest at Wright State University; Bales, Howard; V,1.
The Computerization of Sponsored Project Administrative Systems—Auxilliary Pre-Award Systems: Computerized Scholarly Interest Files; Schneider, Robert; XVIII,3.
The Expertise of the Grants Coordinator; McCandless, Bruce; XVIII,3.
The NSF/NEH/NIH Keyword Thesaurus Experimental Project; Hudson, E. & Rodman, J.; XVII,1.
Word Processing Equipment as an Automated Faculty Information System; Duncan, J. & Wright, C.D.; XII,4.

GRANTS—NON-FEDERAL
Problems in the Administration of Non-Federal Grants; Wasserman, Joel; IV,4.

GRANTS—PROPOSAL PREPARATION
Data Processing and Retrieval System, Office of Research Administration; Koppenhaver, James; II,4.
Effect of Prior Experience on Decision to Submit Proposals; Harris, Kathleen; XVI,4.
Electronic Proposal Processing at Clemson University; Latimer, D. & McCracken, A.; XX,2.
Encouraging the Research Process; SIUE's Experimental Grants Development Seminar for Faculty; Lischwe, S., Manning, L. & Willimann, J.; XVIII,3.
Evaluating Development Costs for a Proposal to a Federal Agency; Hensley, O., Gulley, B. & Eddleman, J.; XII,1.
Expediting Grant Proposals—A Department Success Story, Jan Paul Holesovsky; XXIV,3.
How We Learned to Ask Sponsors for Help (Not Money); Goldberg, Gary; XVI,2.
How Well Do Grantsmanship Guides Address the Literature Review?; Meyer, Katrina; XX,3.
Impediments to Faculty Involvement in Grant-Related Activities: A Case Study; Daniel, L.; XXII, 2.
Interdisciplinary Team Preproposal Management; Gillespie, D. & Mar, B.; IX,2.
Internal Grant Management: Results of a Pilot Study to Enhance the Quality of Proposals by Using External Peer Review; Mishler, J. & Ellyson, E.; XVIII,4.
Meeting Submission Deadlines—A Shared Responsibility; Nachby, Andrew; XI,2.
NIH FIRST Awards: Testing Background Factors for Funding Against Peer Review, Judy A. Emery, Herman W. Meyers and Deborah E. Hunter; XXIV,2.
Potential Checklist for Internally Reviewing Proposals; Harty, Harold; X,2.
Preparing the Grant Application; Gunn, Thomas; II,2.
Preparing Your Institution for a Program Project Site Visit; Smith, R.; XXI,3.
Proposal Applications: Are They Really Worth the Price?; Teague, G. & Heathington, B.; XI,1.
